Criteria to identify Slow Learners and Advanced Learners and assessment methodology

Slow and advanced learners from newly admitted students are identified on the basis of their EAMCET/HSC Percentage and for other class it is on the basis of their performance in respective class(identified using result analysis of respective class)

Criteria

1. On basis of EAMCET Score /HSC percentage

Identification based on EAMCET Score /HSC percentage varies with different academic session as it depends on EAMCET/HSC result of respective year.

2. On basis of their performance in respective class(identified using result analysis of respective class)

Advanced learners and slow learners are categorized on basis of their SGPA

Newly Admitted Student in 2019-20
